

ABOUT

AMBASSADOR CHRISTOPHE MUBI

Ambassador Christophe Mubi is a highly regarded and influential figure across various organizations. As the Founder and Director of MUNAYD Model United Nations for African Youth Development, based in South Africa and Eswatini, he also co-founded KINMUN, the Kinshasa Model United Nations in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Ambassador Christophe Mubi holds a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from both the University of South Africa (UNISA) and the University of Kinshasa (UNIKIN). He began his professional journey as a Marketing Manager at the renowned telecommunications company, Orange France, in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Following a successful tenure, he transitioned to the DRC Government's Department of International Relations, where he was appointed as the Second Secretary at the DRC Embassy in Pretoria in 2014.

Driven by a passion for diplomacy and international relations, he joined the United Nations Refugee Agency (UNHCR) in 2018, an organization committed to safeguarding lives, protecting rights, and fostering a better future for youth compelled to flee their countries due to political conflict and war.

Ambassador Christophe Mubi played a pivotal role as an interpreter for the Department of Home Affairs, which oversees matters concerning individuals affected by disasters in their home countries, emphasizing the importance of refugee rights.

In addition to his work with UNHCR, he volunteered with the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), contributing to efforts aimed at eradicating poverty and promoting inclusivity during the COVID-19 pandemic, a time when thousands of people lost their lives. His leadership skills were instrumental in building resilience within various communities to sustain positive outcomes during this challenging period.

With extensive expertise in diplomacy and public speaking, Ambassador Christophe Mubi was selected in 2021 as one of the influential participants to attend various Model United Nations (MUN) conferences following the pandemic.

Ambassador Christophe Mubi is selected every year as a speaker to different Model United Nations conferences such as FAMUN FACAMP , FWW-MUN, LIMUN, KENTMUN, PIMUN, CANMUN, LISBOMUN, LEAMUNALLIANCE, UNASERBIA, MALTMUN, ZUMUN, BIMUN, IEUMUN, PUJMUN, Global Youth Trends Forum in Taiwan and many more other youth international workshops.

